Once lost, it may not be reinstated except as follows: Appeals may be made only on admitted professorial or institutional error or by a physician-confirmed illness of such duration as to require withdrawal. The student may reapply if a vacancy occurs the following term.

The student must successfully complete a minimum of 12 hours each term and complete degree requirements within four years where 120 hours are required. One extra term will be allowed where the degree requires 130 hours.
